

SOUTHERN TENNESSEE MEDICAL CENTER EMERALD HODGSON HOSPITAL

Winchester, Tennessee

(Population: 7,602 • Service area: 78,070)

Situated at the foot of Sewanee Mountain in southern Middle Tennessee, the city of Winchester offers the best in small-town living with quick access to several major cities.

THE HOSPITAL

Southern Tennessee Medical Center, in conjunction with its sister campus, Emerald-Hodgson Hospital, is a 152-bed acute care and 46-bed skilled care facility. The hospital is JCAHO-accredited and serves south central Tennessee. The facility features a 10-bed ICU, a 12-bed Geriatric Psychiatry Unit, a 12-bed Inpatient Physical Rehab Unit, a Skilled Nursing Unit, Sleep Lab, Cardiac Cath Lab, five OR Suites and two Endoscopy Suites. There is also a 13-bay Emergency Room with over 15,000 annual visits. Emerald-Hodgson Hospital has a four-bay Emergency Room that sees over 5,000 patients every year. Radiology services include MRI, CT, PET/CT, Mammography, Nuclear Medicine, Ultrasound and X-ray.

fishing territory. Archaeological excavations in the region have uncovered numerous artifacts and sites.

RECREATION

Winchester surrounds beautiful Tims Ford Lake, which attracts visitors from miles around for its wonderful fishing, boating and water skiing. The 10,700-acre lake is one of the most picturesque in Tennessee and is regarded as one of the top bass fishing and recreational lakes in the Southeast. Year-round fishing also provides a substantial yield of bluegill, catfish and crappie. The park has almost five miles of paved trails that allow the hiker and cyclist to explore its natural

Local Points of Interest

- Tims Ford Lake – one of the most beautiful in the region, this is a great way to relax on the weekends. Bring your whole family and enjoy the endless fishing, skiing, boating and relaxing.
- The Bear Trace – this challenging course was designed by Jack Nicklaus and named as one of the “Top Ten Places You Can Play” by Golf Magazine.

Emerald-Hodgson Hospital

pool and a bathhouse. Tims Ford State Park also has a 52-site campground, with water and electric hook-ups at each site.

THE COMMUNITY

The city of Winchester is conveniently located in southern Tennessee. Three major metropolitan areas (Huntsville, Chattanooga and Nashville) are within convenient driving distance, each offering a host of cultural, recreational and entertainment activities. The community features top-rated schools, both public and private. The economy is strong and growing steadily, thanks to major employers such as Nissan, Shaw Carpets and Arnold Engineering. Within a short distance is The University of the South, located on a beautiful 10,000-acre campus atop the Cumberland Plateau in Sewanee, Tennessee. This nationally acclaimed liberal arts college also offers graduate studies in theology. The area around Winchester was once used extensively by Native Americans as a hunting and

The Bear Trace at Tims Ford is a 6,790-yard golf course designed by The Golden Bear, Jack Nicklaus. The course has received widespread acclaim, including being named one of the “Top Ten Places You Can Play” by Golf Magazine and one of the “Best New Destinations” in Tennessee. Situated on a peninsula surrounded by Tims Ford Lake, this bent-grass, links-style par 71 course has been described by one national publication as a “glittering newcomer.” Just down the road in Lynchburg is the Jack Daniels Distillery, the nation’s oldest registered distillery, and a favorite tourist destination.

Distance to Major Cities

Huntsville, AL	45 miles
Chattanooga, TN	66 miles
Nashville, TN	92 miles
Atlanta, GA	180 miles

